

Amy Pontelle is a best-selling Romance novelist and diehard Gone With the Wind fan, whose just been offered the Southern Belle wedding of a lifetime. But even when Amy convinces her slower than Southern molasses fiancé, history professor Greg Willey, to play along, her dream of being Scarlett for the big day still has a few snags. The Southern mansion is antiquated to the point of deterioration, its ancient staff is forgetful at best, and Amy can't escape the true horrors of a corset as the price for elegance. The worst part is, Amy is now questioning everything--her dreams, her life, and her engagement--now that she's face to face with the reality of those dreams and the persuasive presence of a better-than-fiction Southern gentleman in an unlikely form... GONE WITH THE WEDDING is the first in an all-new romantic wedding comedy trio. From misunderstandings and battleground mishaps to Southern manners and summer storms, the romantic life of a romantic at heart may not be gone with the wedding after all in this latest light-hearted, zany novel from the author of The Wedding Caper and Late to the Wedding.
