

The Oil Prince A car drives over a puddle and muddy water splashes Emily, who was just out for a walk, from head to toe. When she sees the car parked at a gas station moments later, she decides to confront the man leaning against it. The handsome man refuses to apologize, and after hearing what Emily thinks about him, watches her leave. The next day, fate plays a joke on Emily when she finds out that the man is her boss's brother and a prince of a Middle Eastern country. Prince Basil often appears in tabloids because of different scandals and in order to tame his temper, his father sends him to work on a project of drilling a methane well in Dallas. If Basil refuses or is unsuccessful, his financial accounts will be blocked and his title of prince will be revoked. Although their characters clash, Emily and Basil fall in love while working together and Basil's heart melts. When the project that can significantly improve his family business hits a major obstacle, Basil proves that love has tremendous power and shows a side of himself that nobody knew existed. The Fight for Love Journalist Lucie Walters lives in the city and works for The Standard newspaper. She's living her dream until one night after working late she's attacked by two thugs in a multi-story parking garage. But a hero shows up in the form of a hooded stranger who saves Lucie's life. She quickly realizes that her savior is no stranger but famous fighter Dalton Hughes. Dalton gets injured in the ensuing melee when he saves Lucie but refuses hospital treatment, insisting that he can't risk the negative press. He agrees to go back to Lucie's apartment to let her dress his wounds and the chemistry between them is undeniable. Dalton is powerful with an edge of danger but he's also kind and protective. Lucie can't help but be drawn to him. But Dalton isn't looking for a relationship. His sole focus in his life is his fighting career and he doesn't have space for anything else. Yet Dalton and Lucie can't stop being drawn to one another. Might Dalton be willing to fight for love? Can Lucie tame this famous fighter? Big Love in a Small Town It takes a special kind of woman to step into her father's shoes and run a multinational conservancy at the age of twenty-six, but Sierra Montgomery has done just that. A trip to the outskirts of Cancun, Mexico, lands her in the middle of a rundown hostel and its adjoining animal sanctuary, a place that her father supported privately for years before his death. Sierra's intent to find out why the sanctuary wasn't eligible for official funding from the conservancy and to withdraw funding from her own pocket is met head-on by the tenacious owner, Jonathan Cavner. After a week of tense discussions about the future of his work, they part angrily with no intention of ever laying eyes on one another again. When thieves attack and injure Sierra on her way back to Cancun, Jonathan comes to her rescue. Forced temporarily into his care, she soon finds herself falling head over heels in love with this magical place, the beautiful creatures that call it home, and the selfless man by her side.
