

Sammy has always had a problem falling in love too easily and scaring off potential boyfriends with his overly sentimental nature; a nature that serves in good stead with his job as an Emergency Room nurse. When a co-worker asks him out on April first, is he being pranked, or does A.J. actually like him? A.J. needs a little more zen in his life; being an orderly in the Emergency Room is a stressful job and he goes home at night angry and frustrated. When he finally gets the nerve to ask out the sexy nurse, Sammy, can A.J. convince a once-bitten, twice-shy guy to give him a chance, or will the joke be on him?
