

The Valentines: A war is about to begin. A war between vampires, witches and werewolves has been brewing for centuries. There has been no way for either side to win. Until now. The werewolves have just declared war. Witches are almost extinct and only one family stands in the way of their total annihilation. The Valentines must come together and work with their allies in order to win and save their loved ones against total destruction. They must make sacrifices to save the human race. The world as they know it is about to change. Adam by Sam Crescent Book Three in the The Valentines series. To figure out the present, they need to go back to the past. Poppy is the only remaining necromancer in the world. She is the one in control of the dead and she has been sent to the Valentines. There is an evil force at work and she must help Adam Valentine to uncover it before it's too late. Adam is intrigued by the young necromancer. Her scars do not affect him. He sees the strength inside her and he likes it. All he wants to do is protect her and claim her as his own. They are on a mission to find out who the real alpha of the Beyer West pack is. But Poppy's world is about to turn on itself as she needs to make a choice. There is no room for love in the life of a necromancer, yet after centuries of being alone, Adam has filled her life with meaning. People will die and secrets will be revealed as the balance that protects them is broken. Can their love survive as the world is about to be sent into chaos? This is no longer about the wolves but something much bigger that neither of them can fight. Sam Crescent About the Author: Sam Crescent has always had a love of fiction, through her teen years she would find friendship between the pages rather than in an actual person. By the time she turned sixteen she discovered Mills and Boon and never looked back. She loved the quick happily-ever-after read. A guarantee that no matter what happened the heroes and heroines would always find their soul mate. After college and starting a degree, one lonely bored night she searched the internet looking for a new author to read. On that night and for the years to come she discovered romantica and erotic writing.
