

The only sister in the Brotherhood of Souls, Holly leads the life of a charming chameleon in the Big Apple. The only people who really know her are her family and she's an expert at keeping it that way. She sees nothing to gain in sharing the ugly truth about her past. She unexpectedly meets a saint-like man who deserves the best and Holly takes on the personality of her colorful globe-trotting cousin to impress him. She knows a guy like Lance Fountain could only be a temporary fling for a girl like her and she's sure her false identity will appeal to his generous nature. It doesn't occur to her that he lives a unique reality of his own that makes her fairy tale suit his needs perfectly. When Holly finds out Lance's secret, she realizes why he has tolerated the on-again, off-again relationship her fake life demands. Because she is also guilty of deception, she can hardly call foul. Still convinced that the real Holly can never hope to be good enough for the man she keeps trying not to love, fate steps in, forces her hand and teaches her a once-in-a-lifetime lesson. This is a stand-alone, full-length romance novel and the Brotherhood novels can be read in any order. An introduction to the Brotherhood of Souls Series world is found in the first book, Brothers. Brothers is a full-length prequel to the series and is FREE on Amazon. Darren, Grayson, Wyatt and Noah are also available now. Harlan follows soon. These are contemporary adult romances with five-chili hot steamy scenes full of passion.
