

Vislumbres de la India es el primer ensayo unitario que publica Octavio Paz despues de La llama doble. Si en La llama doble Octavio Paz atendia a la relacion entre amor y erotismo y a su significado ultimo, en Vislumbres de la India lleva a cabo una recapitulacion no solo de su periodo de residencia continuada en dicho pais -ante el que fue embajador desde 1962 hasta 1968- y sus viajes anteriores y posteriores a el, sino tambien de la huella cultural, artistica, politica y filosofica que la India ha dejado en su vivencia, y, mas alla o mas aca de ello, un examen de que cosa sea en si la India. Una India vivida en cuanto experiencia personal, en los reveladores capitulos autobiograficos que abren y cierran el volumen; una India, por otro lado, examinada en su complejidad nacional, religiosa e historica. Testimonio de la agudeza analitica de Octavio Paz, Vislumbres de la India supone ademas un reto para el lector occidental: al ampliar nuestro horizonte mediante la presentacion de una realidad tan distinta como la del inmenso pais, nos incita tambien a ahondar en la fertil discrepancia entre nuestra vision del mundo y las que ahi imperan, a trazar analogias o a perfilar contrastes que, al subvertir nuestra rutina, pueden acaso permitirnos ver en nuestro entorno fecundas posibilidades latentes. El dialogo con la India es asi, en la lucida y diafana prosa de Octavio Paz, tambien un dialogo con la condicion humana, tambien un dialogo con nosotros mismos.
