

You cant thaw a heart that was never frozen. Retired at thirty-five, billionaire Matt Coolidge should be enjoying the fruits of his workaholic years. Instead, hes got migraines from butting heads with his mother. If Matt doesnt get a matrimonial move-on, shes threatening to will the family farm to his brother, wholl turn it into a strip mall. Then Matts childhood best friend rolls back into town, bringing a complication thats not entirely unexpected-or unwelcome. Years ago, with Matts help, Dara Marley froze several embryos before cancer treatment stole her fertility-and before a stupid argument tore their friendship apart. Now alone, shes taking the most logical step to ensure the child shes carrying has a father. Returning to Matt-and hoping bygones will be bygones. Baby and all, Matts on board. And when Dara finds out Matts career kept him too busy for a relationship-even sex-shes more than happy to bring him up to speed. But a decades-old grudge between their families means keeping quiet about their good news-and the feelings they never knew went far deeper than friendship. Warning: Contains a virgin whos been waiting a long time for this and a woman whos happy to show him the way. And theyve both had it up to here with narrow-minded gossips and small-town grudges.
