

Annie LaFaye is a small town girl going to college in the big world. She's talkative, polite, fun and... single. She dreads going to the holiday dinners by herself, until her roommate suggests something that's so out of Annie's comfort zone that it just might work! Annie finds a date for the holidays in Marcus, a confident, handsome curly-haired blond who has everything going for him. Annie feels lucky to be with someone who has it so all-together. But complications arise when Annie and Marcus find they can't hide behind appearances. Will Annie's feelings ruin everything? Light, fun and full of romantic moments, this sweet story will have you falling in love all over again!
