

A sheltered heiress desperate to prove her worth captures the attention of a charming billionaire who is seeking revenge. His desire for REVENGE is complicated... Felix Goldman is a self-made billionaire, admired for his design aesthetic, bold choices, and defending the underdog. But his success hides a core need for revenge. Years ago, the Bolles family destroyed his mother, shattering his childhood and sense of safety. Slowly, he amasses enough wealth to destroy the Bolles's flagship company—and the legacy of unfairness they've left behind. So close to achieving his ultimate goal, Felix didn't count on Grace Bolles, or the simmering attraction he'd feel for her. By falling in love with her. Grace Bolles lives a careful existence pursuing her artistic endeavors, never letting anyone get too close to her. A chance encounter with the charming Felix Goldman makes her wonder if she's been missing out on life's greatest pleasures—but when she discovers he plans to destroy her company and legacy, she's forced to decide between their growing attraction and her deep sense of self-protection. Will her love be enough to lead him down a different path, or will his plan for revenge destroy them both?
