

Excerpt from Sermons to the Clergy
What, then, are we striving for, - to defend our own, or to discover the divine system? Who believes that he has found all truth? Who believes that he has discovered enough to make it worth while to expend his breath in defending it, except so far as attack and defence are the handmaids of discovery? Certainly no theory is indispensable, except the theory which comprehends all things; and that we shall never compass in this world. NO fact is fatal, so it be a fact. AS a fact it must have its appropriate niche in the temple Of Nature, whose builder and maker is God. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
