

Trying something new isn't always painless. Jude Morris has always considered himself straight, but lately his curiosity has been pulling him off-course. With no idea how to approach guys he decides to visit a cruising zone south of the Thames. When Jude meets the fragile beauty that is Aaron Hughes, he's already having second thoughts, and the only thing that stops him from bolting is Aaron's sharp humour and gentle protectiveness. But Aaron is much more than he seems, and now Jude is left to wonder just how far down the rabbit hole he has fallen, and is he falling in love... or falling to his death?
