

This book is intended as a guide to short and modern Passover Seder. In order not to lose the attention of small children, the book begins with the Exodus story right away. The consumption of wine, matzoh, bitter herbs, and charoset is re-arranged within the Exodus story, so their symbolic meaning is more clearly tied to the story. More realistic explanations are woven into the story in place of miracles, but a few of the old prayers are included to keep some ties with the past.
