

CUPIDS TIME Cupid's job is to help find true love for others, but its a hard job to do when he's in love with a man who barely acknowledges his existence. Fighting his own desires, he is ready to give up all emotions just to avoid the pain of not having the respect of the one that holds his heart, let alone craving his love.

The Keepers can find their soul mates among each other, but Cupid is young compared to the one who is meant for him. However, when violence strikes close to home for the Keepers, Cupid is needed to help in the healing process, but only if the soul mates acknowledge their love will the healing begin. Is Cupid in time or will time finally run out? Leaving the one who brings couples together, alone and emotionless for all of eternity.

HARRYS NATURE Known to most as Mother Nature, Nate is used to people not understanding him. However, nothing shocks him more than when his mate and fellow Keeper refuses to claim him. Hurt hundreds of years ago, Nate now finds himself faced with the option to forgive and forget or hold on to the hurt and live the rest of his very long life—without a mate. Two hundred years ago Harry, the Easter Bunny, made a deal that has haunted him every one of those days. A deal which cost him his happiness. Harry looks over the contract again and realizes he may have missed something essential within its meaning.

However, now armed with the answers he still faces a future alone if they go unaccepted. As the Keepers fight for one of their own who seems to have lost his way, will they find him in time or at the very least, find who is controlling him?
