

Jayda is sad and depressed. Not only has she finally divorced her husband and father of her two children, she is also moving hundreds of miles away, back to her childhood home. Christmas is just around the corner and the thought of joining in all of the cheerful festivities seems a little too much for her to handle. She would be relieved if the Christmas season would skip this year and give her time to adjust to her new life. When a mysterious handsome stranger shows up next to her on the airplane full of holiday cheer and talk of Santa it starts her on a journey of believing in the spirit of Christmas again. Can she learn to trust and love again?
