

Eric Duncan rolls into a quaint Upstate New York town to sell medical supplies. He doesn't intend to stay long, but an apparently homeless man whom he keeps running into catches his attention. While passersby ignore the man, Eric can't leave the situation alone. Dennis Hayden's last memory is of hiking in the mountains. He doesn't know how he ended up in town, nor how he keeps popping up in various places. He walks around aimlessly, trying to recall something as simple as his name. He's not sure what to think of the stranger he sees repeatedly, and who keeps trying to talk to him. While meeting a potential client at the hospital, Eric overhears a young lady looking for her brother who went missing several days ago, while hiking. Eric recognizes the picture of Dennis on the flyer and sets out to reunite him with his sister.
