

The Way of the Toddler is a funny, insightful and no nonsense study of the craziness and complexities of modern motherhood, with an original and touching spiritual dimension. Our children can be our greatest teachers, but we forget to look for the spiritual lessons when we are so grossed out by what they are producing in their diapers. The Way of the Toddler bravely dissects the mundane to find the gift of each and every moment. Ultimately the book celebrates the wisdom of the toddler and challenges parents to use all that time they spend with their children to learn, grow and find a deeper sense of peace within themselves.
