

Hannah Williams first goal after becoming a bounty hunter is to return to Hide Town, Texas to seek revenge on the man who sold her into prostitution. While searching for her stepfather, she stumbles across a man brutally beaten and takes him to her hideout. There, she is horrified to discover she has rescued the very man who turned his back on her during her blackest moment. Preacher Jackson Colster never imagined the girl he refused to help would one day return to town and save his life. Can he save her from her destructive path of retribution? Or in mending her wounded past, will she help him confront his own haunting nightmares? Can Hannah and Jackson heal their wounds, silence the past and let love guide their future?
